The wait is part of the promise.

Samuel anointed David king in his youth, yet the palace was not his immediate destination. David roamed arid wildernesses for nearly fifteen years.

The wilderness taught him how to trust God when the adversary was time itself.

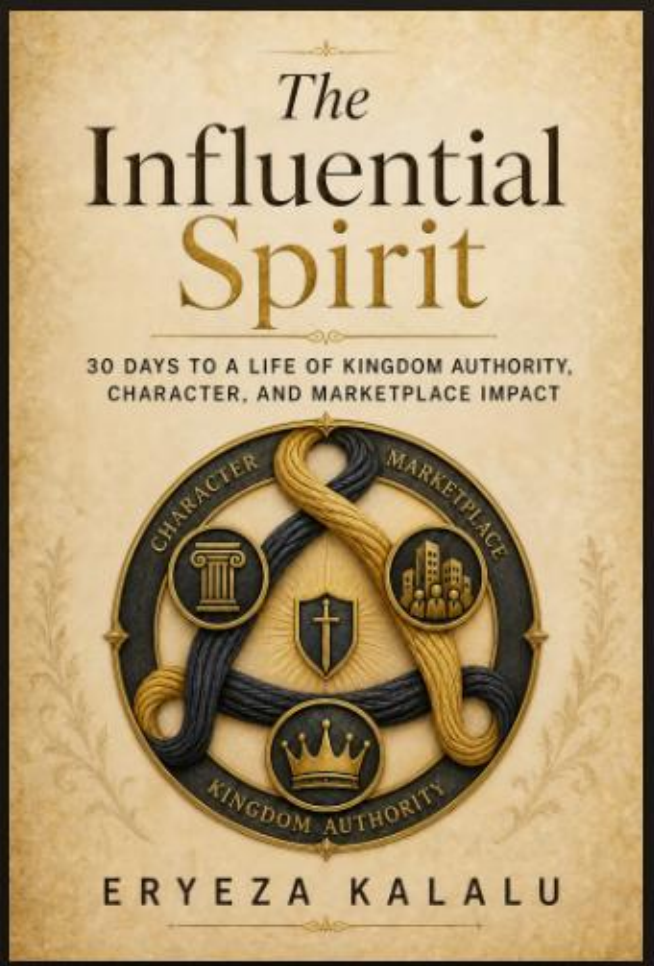

Joseph waited in prison and served while in it. Moses waited in the desert and tended the flock. They were faithful in the concealed times.

I wait with purpose. I am not delayed. I am being developed. God is never late.

SCRIPTURE

“Wait on the Lord; Be of good courage, and He shall strengthen your heart; Wait, I say, on the Lord!”

PSALM 27:14
