DAY 11 · DEATH OF THE SELFIE

How much of your life is a filter?

Pastor Eryeza Kalalu

AUTHOR OF THE INFLUENTIAL SPIRIT

SWIPE →

The selfie with its filter trims away the untidy corners of life, hides personal struggles, and parades only the impressive side.

Your supervisor takes the credit for your strategy and receives the applause.

Everything in you wants to stand up and demand fairness.

Dying to self liberates your true identity. It puts to death the anxious, approval-seeking ego so that the person God designed you to be flourishes.

TRY THIS TODAY

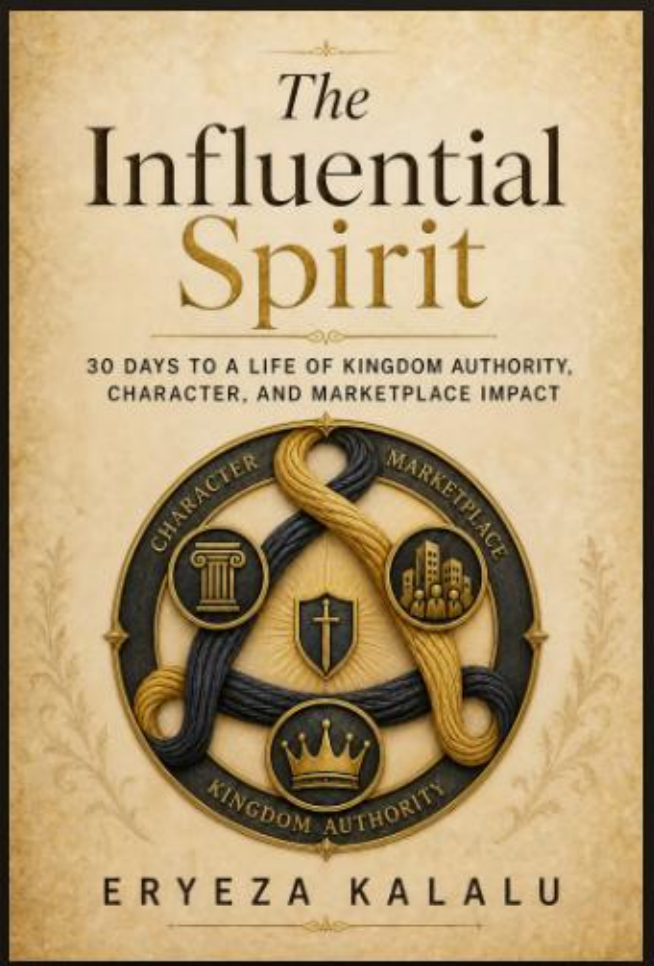

Do something excellent today, fix a mistake, clean up a mess, bestow a gift, and let no one notice.

Eryeza Kalalu

SCRIPTURE

“If anyone desires to come after Me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross, and follow Me.”

MATTHEW 16:24

Let Jesus reign and shine.

eryezakalalu.com/influential-spirit

Thirty days for people with real responsibility. Out now as a book, an audiobook and a study edition.